

Invitation

in the context of the Ignatian Year

Ancient documents...

restored to serve the people of today

WHEN? Friday 3 December | 2 to 3.30 pm (Rome time)

WHERE? Aula of the Jesuit General Curia in Rome and online on Zoom all over the world

<https://link.jesuit.media/arsi-zoom> [password: 088495]

The original manuscripts of the Society's founding documents (some in St Ignatius' own hand) - the Spiritual Exercises, the Spiritual Diary of St Ignatius and the Constitutions of the Society of Jesus have been fully restored.

How can this, today, inspire all of us the members of the extended "Ignatian family"?

With simultaneous translation into English, Spanish and French.

Participants:

- Rev. Fr. Arturo Sosa SJ, Superior General of the Society of Jesus
- Guillermo Barandiarán, Gondra Barandiarán Foundation
- Melania Zanetti, restorer
- Brian Mac Cuarta SJ, Academic Director of ARSI
- José García de Castro SJ, specialist in Ignatian spirituality
- Denis Dobbelstein, CLC World President
- Sr Ghislaine Pauquet, Congregation Our Lady of the Cenacle

A second session will follow:

At 4pm, Professor Melania Zanetti will lead a special session on her work of restoring the manuscripts. All are welcome, but particularly archivists and other conservation professionals.
